BRITISH GRAIN MARKET.
Daily Review by the "Mark Lane Express."
LONDON, April 25.—The Mark Lane
Express in its weekly review of the British grain trade, says: The return of unsatisfactory weather has again checked vegetation. The wheat plant appears stunted except the spring sowings. One third of the land is warm and moist weather. The prices in English wheat continue moderate. Its scarcity has caused an increase in some of the country markets.
Flour in London is very materially checked by the firmness of the hold-foreign, the recent arrivals are more absorbed by the consumptive demand, the consequence of the increase in the number of arrivals are very reserved. The prices of wheat and flour remain firm. Prices for both wheat and flour are practically unchanged. Flour is sold slowly, but prices are firm. Prices of wheat are unchanged, but business is better. Maize, now in better supply, is selling at 20 cents. A mixed American extra ship, in London, is quoted on Friday at 26 shillings per quarter.

Forty wheat-laden vessels are due during the present week. The largest supplies of breadstuffs arrived at Bombay, from India, during the month of April, and proves that America can pay her way from obtaining the money.

ales of English wheat during the week ending 7th quarter at 44 shillings 9 pence per quarter, against 29 333 quarters at 48 shillings 1 pence per quarter for the corresponding week last year.

DISASTER! DUST.

Providence has been sending messages to the Remains of the Ex-minter.

ΣΑΒΒΑΤΟΝ, April 25—The Queen will send a message of condolence to the Remains of the Ex-minter, with other members of the Royal Family.

The funeral will assemble in Highgate Church at 11 a. m. on Tuesday.

The Manor House at 3 p. m. Tuesday will be half an hour before the funeral.

The funeral procession, the coffin placed upon a wheeled bier, on the way to the Manor House, will pass down the main gateway on the side of the hill.

er, who will then commence the burial. As the remains are brought up the nave to the chancel the organ plays Beethoven's funeral march. "We will rest in front of the altar while the Vicar reads the portion of the service, and will then be taken out through the south door," the organ playing, "and in the Lord," while the mourners quit the church for the vault at the west end, where the interment will be made in sight of the assembled people.

It is stated that a proposition will be made in Parliament for the erection of a national monument to record the national services of Lord Beaconsfield.

INTERNATIONAL MONETARY CONFERENCE.

Prospects for a Successful Issue.

The English Delegate.—LONDON, April 25.—Fremantle, Deputy Secretary and Comptroller of the English mission, expected here Wednesday to represent England at the Monetary Conference, said he had been requested simply to take notes and report on the proceedings. He expressed his reservation of opinion that might be taken simply acquiescence in the principles advanced by the convokers of the conference.

London, April 24.—The National Zeitung writes, "The Monetary Conference has begun." It says: "There is no prospect of the success of the Monetary Conference, and in view of the pressure upon the Powers, decision to postpone even close the deliberations may be expected shortly."

Situation in Greece.—LONDON, April 25.—An Athens correspondent says: "Either the government will resign or the Powers will intervene with a deep game with its own people. Greece is on the brink of war. The situation in the Greek note which was presented this week will be its call for attention of the Powers to the fact that it had not replied to the remonstrances maintained in the Greek note of the 7th."

correspondent at Constantinople said that Mr. Porte's reply to the note of the Powers probably reflect more or less clearly an unsatisfactory feeling produced by the Greek note. The chief aim of the Porte in sacrificing the territory is not merely to end the war at present, but to establish permanent friendly relations with Athens and to secure permanent tranquillity in the Greek provinces. In Turkey, as the Greek newspaper says, there is little prospect of this being realized. Some guarantee will be asked.

The Troubles in Tunis.
TUNIS, April 25.—The French Consul General has offered to place the French troops at the disposal of the Bey for the purpose of maintaining order in the European quarter of the city, but the Bey declines.

the Sultan has approved all the measures the Bey has lately adopted, and negotiations have been opened with the Powers to protect the rights of the Sultan as regards the Bay is taking energetic measures to prevent disturbances. Any Arab found Tannerism in Scotland.

 LONDON, April 25.—The Glasgow paper reports that Catherine Marshall, aged 60, a widow, and a daughter of a railway laborer, has not taken food since the beginning of the present year. She taken a little warm water, but scarcely sleeps. She has grown emaciated, but her pulse is perfectly normal.
